

Welcome to the website of the project „Establishing University Cooperation Osijek-Pécs”.

The scope of the EUNICOP project (HUHR/0901/2.2.1/0013) is enhancing the cooperation between the University of Pécs and Osijek in the field of law. In this website you can find more detailed information on, among others, the project activities, staff, and project outputs.

The EUNICOP project is a common research and curricula development project of the University of Osijek and Pécs in the field of law. The project is co-financed and supported by the European Union through the Hungary-Croatia IPA Cross-border Co-operation Program and the two participating law faculties. The Lead Beneficiary is the University of Pécs, Faculty of Law, the Partner is Josip Juraj Strossmayer University, Faculty of Law, Osijek. For the activities projected a total budget of 215 620 € (HU 136 400 €, HR 79 220 €) was approved for the project duration of 12 months (15 February, 2010-14 February, 2011).

The project has more divergent and interrelated scopes which can strengthen the effect of one another. Among these, creating joint regional research in the field of law, sharing knowledge in specific cross-border issues, enhancing cooperative teaching activity and curricula development, exchange of good practice in tendering and project management, promotion of joint results can be mentioned. These scopes are achieved through different activities: study visits, common seminary with the participation of Croat and Hungarian students, common research with the involvement of Croat and Hungarian researchers, conference where the knowledge gained can be shared, publication of the research results and the discussions of the conference in three book on Croat, Hungarian and English languages.

You can read more details about EUNICOP in this presentation .

The official flyer of the project is available here .

